

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 303493      Description: Research Methods in Edu. & Psychology

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303720      Description: Teching Thinkink

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303721      Description: Theories of Classroom Learning and Teaching

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303722      Description: Theories of Development & It's Educational Applications

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303723      Description: School Psychology

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303724      Description: Theories of Motivation

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303725      Description: Educational Psychology

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303729      Description: Cognitive and Language Learning

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303743      Description: Group Counseling

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of primary and secondary groups, bases of development and construction of group, theories and methods of group counseling, counseling different categories (students, family, work groups, children), field implications in-group counseling.

---

Couse ID: 303744      Description: Counseling Categories With Special Needs

Full Course Description: The course involves the concept of psychological counseling, its role with different groups, training on the skill of interview and information collection about psychosocial, sociological behaviors effects among challenged groups such as abused, orphans, divorced parent children, low achievers, and talents, etc., and interpretation in the light of counseling theories, and setting counseling program for the exceptional and implementing it.

---

Couse ID: 303747      Description: Counseling Theories and Techniques

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of the theory concept, the most important theories of counseling and psychotherapy: reality, rational, phenomenological, behavioral, analytical, existential, eclectic, implementation of these theories in different fields of counseling.

---

Couse ID: 303751      Description: Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course takes up The definition of family counseling and techniques, family problems and methods of treatments according to the family counseling and planning for happy life and congruence.

---

Couse ID: 303752      Description: Marriage and Couple Counseling

Full Course Description: The course define marriage counseling and theories, explore the legal issues relate the marriage life, and other issues related to sexual disordered, divorce, child custody, domestic abuse and violence, and the family and couple services institutes in Jordan .

---

Couse ID: 303754      Description: Family Responsibilities and Rights

Full Course Description: The course define the Islamic and International legislation systems and laws related to the family, its roles and duties, the impact of the social, political and scientific factors on the daily life of Jordanian family, and the role of community in supporting the family.

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 303755      Description: Family System

Full Course Description: The course provides analysis of the family system theory, the integration of systems with the subsystems, the developmental stages of family life, the roles and duties of every individual in the family, and their interaction in the larger community and other social systems.

---

Couse ID: 303756      Description: Adulthood and Elderly Psychology

Full Course Description: The course defines adulthood stages: adult, middle adult , and elderly, and its characteristics and needs, positive, vocational and marriage adjustment, and negative influences of adult and caring needs for the aged.

---

Couse ID: 303757      Description: Conseling Addicts

Full Course Description: The course introduces definition of obsessive behavior, such habits and addicts, counseling intervention strategies related to prevention, substance use, and side effective psychoactive drugs, abuse and dependency will be emphasized, etiology, assessment, diagnosis, prevention referral, and treatment of addictive disordered

---

Couse ID: 303759      Description: Intership in Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course includes two parts: first includes the theoretical part, techniques of developing family counseling programs, according to family counseling theories to help counselees to cope with the family problems in different social settings. The second part is the practical training to apply the family-counseling program. And an hour is allotted to discuss the students' applications and their work with the other students.

---

Couse ID: 303771      Description: Constructing psychological and Educational instrument

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 303773      Description: Individual Tests

Full Course Description: This course involves definition of individual psychological tests, cognitive tests such as ability, aptitudes, and achievement, and personal tests, such as attitudes, interests and personality types, norms, and how to administer and interpret tests results, its practical applications in the labs and the field, and writing report.

---

Couse ID: 303791      Description: Statistical Analysis in Educational Research

Full Course Description: Using appropriate statistical test for testing hypothesis such as: Z, t, F analysis of variance, post hoc and multiple comparisons.

---

Couse ID: 303792      Description: Research Deisgn in Education & Psychology

Full Course Description: Educational research methodology, problem formulation, hypotheses testing, sampling, data collection, and data analysis. Research designs (completely randomized design, randomized block design, hierarchical design, Latin Square design, factorial design.

---

Couse ID: 303798      Description: Research Project

Full Course Description: This course requires preparing a micro or explorative research in the student's specialty field, and preparing a report about this study consisting of 10000 words.

---

Couse ID: 303799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 2303726      Description: Practicum

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 2303727      Description: Individual Difference

Full Course Description: This course involves theories of mental abilities and personality; factors influencing individual differences, their educational application in identifying gifted, low achievers, emotional disorders etc.,

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

Couse ID: 2303741 Description: Career development and Counseling

Full Course Description:

Couse ID: 2303742 Description: Diagnosis and Treatment of Mental Disorers

Full Course Description: The course provides the skills and Knowledge base for: the assessment of diagnosis of mental disorders utilizing the DSM classification system and counseling intervention for each of the major mental disorders, knowledge covered for each mental disorder includes basic psychopathology, DSM diagnostic criteria, theories of etiology, (research of prevention and treatment, conducting intake interview, formulating a five-axis diagnosis and making differential diagnosis.

Couse ID: 2303745 Description: Counseling rehabilitaion of mentally disorders

Full Course Description:

Couse ID: 2303748 Description: Behavior and Cognitive Intervention

Full Course Description: The course define behavior and cognitive counseling theories, concepts and techniques, methods of intervention in solving problems, such as anger, self assertiveness, phobia, compulsive and obsessive behavior, depression, anxiety, attention deficits etc.

Couse ID: 3303799 Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

Couse ID: 6303799 Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

Couse ID: 9303799 Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

Couse ID: 110303721 Description: Learning Theories and Applications

Full Course Description: The course includes the concept of learning and the factors affecting it, its assessment and transfer to new situations, the role of theory in explaining, guiding, and controlling learning, the main concept of behaviorist, social, cognitive theories, information processing models, and their roles in explaining learning and its processes.

Couse ID: 110303722 Description: Developmental Theories and Educational Applications

Full Course Description: developmental theories and educational applications

Couse ID: 110303723 Description: School Psychology

Full Course Description: تتناول المادة التعريف بعلم النفس المدرسي، والخدمات النفسية المدرسية، وأساليب تشخيص المشكلات التربوية والأسرية، واستراتيجيات حلها والتدريب على اتخاذ القرارات بشأن الطلبة ذوي صعوبات التعلم.

Couse ID: 110303724 Description: Educational Psychology

Full Course Description: The course includes educational psychology fields, theories and their application in classroom situation; contemporary learning theories and their application, issues affecting teaching and learning process, as: motivation, intelligence, thinking styles: creative and critical thinking and metacognition, effect of culture on learning, learning disability.

Couse ID: 110303725 Description: Theories of Motivation

Full Course Description: The course includes behaviorist, humanistic, cognitive, and social cognitive motivation theories, and their explanations and development of the motivated behavior, how to apply them in classroom, and provides an opportunity to discuss the current issues related to each theory.

Couse ID: 110303726 Description: Cognitive Psychology

Full Course Description: This course provides an explanation of human cognitive processes, focusing on both classic and current issues from a neuropsychological perspective, topics including attention, perception, multiple memory systems, the role of knowledge, problem-solving, language and reasoning in addition to practical applications of this domain in educational settings.

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 110303727      Description: Individual Difference

Full Course Description: This course involves definition of individual of differences, the factors of individual differences, the theories of mental abilities and theories of personality, its application in different settings to recognize the high and low achievers and behavior disorders.

---

Couse ID: 110303728      Description: Special Topics in Educational Pscology

Full Course Description: This course discusses special topics in educational psychology based on the most recent literature related to theories of learning and instruction, motivation, intelligence, and this is to increase students' knowledge in their area of specialization.

---

Couse ID: 110303731      Description: Classroom Instructional Counseling

Full Course Description: This course includes the concept of a teaching model, categories of teaching models, with examples on each category, and applications of these teaching models in the classroom.

---

Couse ID: 110303732      Description: Teching Thinkink

Full Course Description: This course includes the meaning of thinking, its importance, and types including, critical and creative thinking, problem solving, and decision on making, their steps, uses, applications of its principles and skill in the classroom.

---

Couse ID: 110303740      Description: Counseling Theories and Techniques

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of the theory concept, the most important theories of counseling and psychotherapy: reality, rational, phenomenological, behavioral, analytical, existential, eclectic, implementation of these theories in different fields of counseling.

---

Couse ID: 110303741      Description: Career Development and Counseling Theories

Full Course Description: The course introduces the definition of career counseling, its development, career development and counseling theories: traits and factors, adjustment, personality and environment, life span, social learning, and decision making, their relationship to human resources, work market, classification and description of professions, and field implications in different settings.

---

Couse ID: 110303742      Description: Diagnosis and Treatment of Mental Disorers

Full Course Description: The course interests in describing, explaining the abnormal behavior and mental disorders. The treatment of the disorders classified in the DSM IV-TR is included and emphasized

---

Couse ID: 110303743      Description: Group Counseling

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of primary and secondary groups, bases of development and construction of group, theories and methods of group counseling, counseling different categories (students, family, work groups, children), field implications in-group counseling.

---

Couse ID: 110303744      Description: Counseling Categories With Special Needs

Full Course Description: The course involves the concept of psychological counseling, its role with different groups, training on the skill of interview and information collection about psychosocial behaviors effects among challenged groups such as abused, orphans, and talents, etc., and setting counseling program for the exceptional and implementing it

---

Couse ID: 110303745      Description: Counseling rehabilitaion of mentally disorders

Full Course Description: a

---

Couse ID: 110303746      Description: Conseling Addicts

Full Course Description: The course introduces definition of obsessive behavior, counseling intervention strategies related to prevention, substance use, and side effective psychoactive drugs, abuse and dependency will be emphasized, etiology, assessment, diagnosis, prevention, and referral of addictive disordered and treatment according to counseling theories.

---

Couse ID: 110303747      Description: Educational Counseling Techniques

Full Course Description: a

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 110303761      Description: Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course define the family, the historical development of the family, and the family members role, the definition of the family counseling theories and techniques, family problems and methods of treatments according to the family counseling and planning for happy life and congruence.

---

Couse ID: 110303762      Description: Marriage and Couple Counseling

Full Course Description: The course define marriage counseling and theories, explore the legal issues relate the marriage life, and other issues related to sexual disordered, divorce, child custody, domestic abuse and violence, and the family and couple services institutes in Jordan

---

Couse ID: 110303763      Description: Family Counseling Skills and Techniques

Full Course Description: a

---

Couse ID: 110303764      Description: Family Responsibilities and Rights

Full Course Description: The course defines the Islamic and International legislation systems and laws related to the family, its roles and duties, the impact of the social, political and scientific factors on the daily life of Jordanian family, and the role of community in supporting the family.

---

Couse ID: 110303782      Description: Research Design and Statistical Analysis

Full Course Description: This course includes educational research methodology, problem formulation, hypotheses testing, sampling, and data collection. Research designs (completely randomized design, randomized block design, hierarchical design, Latin Square design, factorial designs).Using the appropriate statistical analysis for testing hypotheses using SPSS

---

Couse ID: 110303783      Description: Intelligence Theories and Assessment

Full Course Description: This course includes intelligence theories and professional practice of assessing the intellectual ability of children and adolescents and their limitations. In addition, this course focuses on developing practical skills of administering; scoring and interpreting of the results of the most commonly used measures of intellectual ability.

---

Couse ID: 110303784      Description: Constructing psychological and Educational instrument

Full Course Description: This course provides instrument development techniques, including construct and concept development, test and item specifications, item writing, planning for reliability and validity testing, ethics in research. Students will develop an instrument to measure a construct or trait of their interest

---

Couse ID: 110303788      Description: Research Project

Full Course Description: This course requires preparing a micro or explorative research in the students' of specialization, and writing a report about this study consisting of 5000-10000 words.□
This is a pass/fail course with no grades, and it is not included in the student's GPA□

---

Couse ID: 110303790      Description: Comprehensive Exam

Full Course Description: a

---

Couse ID: 110303797      Description: Practicum in Educational Counseling

Full Course Description: The course includes training on techniques of developing counseling programs, according to counseling theories, applying the counseling program to the treatment of the academic, psychosocial, vocational problems, on cases from educational or institutes, centers, or society offering counseling\ care programs aim to empowerment of the individual, using their abilities, an hour is allotted to discus the student's applications and their work with the supervisor, and the course requires 150 working hours

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 110303798      Description: Practicum in Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course includes training in family counseling skills application according to the common counseling theories, the building treatment relationship, assessment and identification the marital and family stress resources and the intervention skills. In addition this course includes ability to implement different family counseling skills according to different family counseling theories. The location of training must be in different family counseling and organizations.

---

Couse ID: 110303799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description: a

---

Couse ID: 1803031740      Description: Counseling Theories and Techniques

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of the theory concept, the most important theories of counseling and psychotherapy: reality, rational, phenomenological, behavioral, analytical, existential, eclectic, implementation of these theories in different fields of counseling

---

Couse ID: 1803031741      Description: Career Development and Counseling Theories

Full Course Description: The course introduces the definition of career counseling, its development, career development and counseling theories: traits and factors, adjustment, personality and environment, life span, social learning, and decision making, their relationship to human resources, work market, classification and description of professions, and field implications in the different settings.

---

Couse ID: 1803031742      Description: Diagnosis and Treatment of Mental Disorers

Full Course Description: The course involves psychopathology is examined using an integrative approach including the biological, psychological, social, cultural, familial, and political forces that currently define abnormal behavior, Subjective and objective diagnosis tools. More specifically, the history, theories, research, DSM IV-TR diagnostic categories, and psychopharmacological treatments are covered. Anxiety, dissociation, mood, eating, substance abuse, sleep, sexual, psychotic, childhood, adolescent, cognitive, personality, impulse control, somatoform, and adjustment disorders are examined. Critical thinking, using clinical examples and case studies, is emphasized

---

Couse ID: 1803031744      Description: Counseling Categories With Special Needs

Full Course Description: The course involves the concept of psychological counseling, its role with different groups, training on the skill of interview and information collection about psychosocial behaviors effects among challenged groups such as abused, orphans, divorced parent children, low achievers, and talents, etc., and interpretation in the light of counseling theories, and setting counseling program for the exceptional and implementing it.

---

Couse ID: 1803031746      Description: Conseling Addicts

Full Course Description: The course introduces definition of obsessive behavior, such habits and addicts drug substance abuse smoking eat disorders, gambling etc. , counseling intervention strategies related to prevention, substance use, and side effective psychoactive drugs, abuse and dependency will be emphasized, etiology, assessment, diagnosis, prevention, and referral of addictive disordered and treatment according to counseling theories

---

Couse ID: 1803031761      Description: Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course define the family, the historical development of the family, and the family members role, the definition of the family counseling theories and techniques, family problems and methods of treatments according to the family counseling and planning for happy life and congruence.

---

Couse ID: 1803031762      Description: Marriage and Couple Counseling

Full Course Description: The course define marriage counseling and theories, explore the legal issues relate the marriage life, and other issues related to sexual disordered, divorce, child custody, domestic abuse and violence, and the family and couple services institutes in Jordan

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 1803031763      Description: Group Counseling

Full Course Description: The course involves the definition of primary and secondary groups, bases of development and construction of group, theories and methods of group counseling, counseling different categories (students, family, work groups, children), field implications in-group counseling

---

Couse ID: 1803031764      Description: Family Responsibilities and Rights

Full Course Description: The course defines the Islamic and International legislation systems and laws related to the family, its roles and duties, the impact of the social, political and scientific factors on the daily life of Jordanian family, and the role of community in supporting the family

---

Couse ID: 1803031765      Description: Legal issues in family, divorce and parental care

Full Course Description: This course generally deals with legal issues relating to parents and children. This includes subjects such as parental rights, medical treatment choices for children, standards for what constitutes child abuse, paternity, adoption, child custody, child support, spousal support, divorce, the lawyer's role in solving family problems, assisted reproduction, alternate dispute resolution techniques, the facto positive relationships, and marital agreement

---

Couse ID: 1803031766      Description: Coaching through the stages of life

Full Course Description: This course is overview of development across the life span and addresses issues that impact counseling and development such as ethnicity, economics, disabilities, and abuse/neglect, emphasis on developmental theories including family development and basic learning theory, child/adolescent Utilizes tools and media to facilitate expression, self-understanding, personal growth and development. Includes observation and supervised experiences

---

Couse ID: 1803031769      Description: Guidance for people with special needs<sup>1</sup>

Full Course Description: This course studies the principles, techniques and practices used in individuals with special needs. The focus of facilitate human development and adjustment throughout the individual's lifespan including career development, encourage and support the academic, career and social/emotional development for all students through comprehensive school counseling programs. School to helping all students realize their potential and meet or exceed academic standards regardless of challenges resulting from disabilities and other special needs

---

Couse ID: 1803031782      Description: Research Design and Statistical Analysis

Full Course Description: ☐ Educational research methodology, problem formulation, hypotheses testing, sampling, data collection. Research designs (completely randomized design, randomized block design, hierarchical design, Latin Square design, factorial designs), data analysis (analysis of variance and covariance). Using appropriate statistical test for testing hypothesis such as: Z, t, F, ?2, analysis of variance, post hoc and multiple comparisons. It is required from students to use SPSS in analyzing data and reading output.

---

Couse ID: 1803031784      Description: Constructing psychological and Educational

Full Course Description: This course provides instrument development techniques, including construct and concept development, test and item specifications, item writing, planning for reliability and validity testing, ethics in research. Students will develop an instrument to measure a construct or trait of their interest.

---

Couse ID: 1803031788      Description: Research Project

Full Course Description: This course requires preparing a micro or explorative research in the students' of specialization, and writing a report about this study consisting of 5000-10000 words. ☐ This is a pass/fail course with no grades, and it is not included in the student's GPA ☐

---

Couse ID: 1803031790      Description: Comprehensive Exam

Full Course Description: ييباب

Courses Description

College: Educational Science

Department: Educational Psychology

---

Couse ID: 1803031796      Description: Practicum in Educational Counseling

Full Course Description: The course includes training on techniques of developing counseling programs, according to counseling theories, applying the counseling program to the treatment of the academic, psychosocial, vocational problems, on cases from educational or institutes, centers, or society offering counseling\ care programs aim to empowerment of the individual, using their abilities, an hour is allotted to discus the student's applications and their work with the supervisor, and the course requires 150 working hours.

---

Couse ID: 1803031797      Description: Practicum in Family Counseling

Full Course Description: The course includes training in family counseling skills application according to the common counseling theories, the building treatment relationship, assessment and identification the marital and family stress resources and the intervention skills. In addition this course includes ability to implement different family counseling skills according to different family counseling theories. The location of training must be in different family counseling and organizations.

---

Couse ID: 1803031799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description: 6هعيف

---

Couse ID: 1803033799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 1803036799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 1803039799      Description: Thesis

Full Course Description:

---

Couse ID: 2203031782      Description: Statistical Analysis in Psychological and Educational Research

Full Course Description: This course aims at providing students with the basic knowledge regarding descriptive and inferential statistical procedures that are used in psychological and educational studies. It presents measures of central tendency, measures of dispersion, measures of location, normal distribution, and correlation coefficients. In addition, it aims to introduce students to the concept of research hypotheses (null and alternative hypotheses), and to different statistical analyses that are used in data analysis, such as: Z-test, t-test for independent and dependent samples, one way analysis of variance, some nonparametric statistics (such as Mann-Whitney, Wilcoxon test, etc.), two-way analysis of variance, simple and multiple regression analysis, and an introduction to multivariate analysis of variance. Students will be trained to do these analyses using SPSS.